

SUCCESS Begins at CCES
Cooperate with others.
Choose wisely.
Expect excellence.
Show respect and responsibility.

At Calvert City Elementary, the key to becoming a successful student and supportive parent is to follow the CCES guidelines every day.

Students

Listen to your teachers.

Follow directions.

Treat others the way you want them to treat you.

Parents

Encourage your child to listen to teachers and staff.

Remind them to do what is asked of them.

Read the information that is sent home.

Make plans to attend school events.

Staff

Encourage all students to listen to all faculty and staff and to do what is asked of them the first time.

Work together to meet the educational needs of your students.

Make yourself aware of the needs and concerns of the parents and ways to address them.

Choose Wisely

Students

Follow the guidelines. They have been designed to keep you safe and maintain order.

Work during work time and play during play time.

Think about your actions and how they affect you and/or others.

Acknowledge consequences for poor choices.

Parents

Encourage your child to follow all the guidelines to keep them and others safe at all times.

Monitor what comes to school with your child.

Encourage your child to use his/her time wisely at home and at school.

Staff

Encourage all students to follow the guidelines at all times. Supervise consistently.

Teach students to learn to use time wisely. Monitor and encourage all students to use their time productively.

Students

Take pride in your work and give your absolute best.

Learning can be hard. Keep trying until you get it.

Giving your best sometimes means asking for help when you don't understand.

Show Respect and Responsibility

Students

Complete all assignments. They will help you become a better student.

Come prepared to class. It shows you are serious about learning.

All actions should show respect for yourself and others.

Parents

Never accept less than your child's best effort.

Maintain high expectations for your child's success.

Be an advocate for your child. Seek additional support if needed to help them give their best.

Parents

Support good study habits at home and school.

Maintain a friendly and open relationship with school staff.

Set a good example by treating others with courtesy and respect.

Staff

Never accept less than the best from your students and yourself.

Maintain high expectations for your students and yourself.

Use every tool available to motivate students to give their absolute best.

Staff

Set realistic expectations with clear directions.

Give recognition to those exhibiting responsible behavior.

Be on time and have engaging lessons prepared for your students.

When visiting the school, follow all school procedures to set a good example. Show students you care about them.
