Introduction

The submission of this report is required by the Kentucky Department of Education (KDE) as part of Unbridled Learning: College/Career Readiness for All accountability system. Document each of your school's required Program Reviews under the "Diagnostic" tab and then add each completed component to this document for submission. Each of the required Program Review components is listed below. Work with your district and Site Based Decision Making Council (SBDM) to obtain feedback and approval prior to clicking the submit button. Once submitted, this report will be made available to your district for review and approval.

Program Review: Arts and Humanities

Introduction

This report contains Program Review results for Arts and Humanities. This program review is required as part of Kentucky's new assessment and accountability model. A Program Review is a systematic method of analyzing components of an instructional program, including instructional practices, aligned and enacted curriculum, student works samples, formative and summative assessments, professional development and support services, and administrative support and monitoring. (KRS 158.6453(l)(i)) Diagnostic tools to capture and report the results from these program reviews are contained in the AdvancED's Adaptive System of School Improvement Support Tools (ASSIST). ASSIST allows schools and institutions to gain better understanding of past successes and opportunities, and confidently build a solid, research-based improvement plan for the future.

Curriculum and Instruction: Student Access

All students should have equitable access to high quality curriculum and instruction.

Overall Rating: 2.5

	Statement or Question	Response	Rating
a)	To what extent does the school provide access for all students through intentionally scheduling time within the instructional day for a balanced program of creating, performing and responding to the arts in each of the four arts disciplines?	The arts program offers individual students the opportunity to develop their own talents in the artistic processes of creating, performing and responding to the arts with the support of teachers, beyond the regular classroom.	Distinguished

b)	To what extent does the school ensure that the arts curriculum provides discipline-based instruction and protected time in each arts discipline as outlined in the Kentucky Academic Standards?	The arts curriculum provides discipline-based instruction and protected time in each arts discipline containing its own body of knowledge, skills, and ways of thinking as outlined in the Kentucky Academic Standards. •Elementary: All students have regularly scheduled discipline-based arts instruction providing for exploration of each of the four art forms outlined in the KAS. •Middle School: All students have access to regularly- scheduled discipline-based, arts courses in each of the four art forms which provide a firm grounding in basic creating, performing and responding to the arts. Students wishing to begin a specialization in an art form(s) are provided regularly scheduled classes. •High School: Year-long (or equivalent) Discipline-based arts instruction through multiple, specialized arts courses in each art form is available for any student wishing to specialize in an art form(s) as noted in students' Individual Learning Plans. Students wishing not to specialize have access to the History and Appreciation of Visual and Performing Arts course or another arts course to meet the Arts and Humanities graduation requirement. Evidence is identified to support the school's analysis for each of the demonstrators. Program review evidence may be specific for an area (Writing, Arts & Humanities, Practical Living/Career Studies, K-3, and Global Competency/World Languages) or may be common across other reviews. Review teams will likely find they need to search out additional evidence during the program review process in order to make judgments or to support judgments.

a) The Master schedule gives all students access to the Arts & Humanities on a regular basis. Students have classes in both Visual and ArtAppreciation, Band, Music, Drama through the LA classes and Drama club along with Dance in Health and PE. Lesson plans show that all areas cover the required content for each area. All students during the school year are enrolled in fine arts classes in which they are exposed to music, drama and visual arts. All students are evaluated based on performance and or production through both formative and summative assessments, understanding of terms and the creative process of each art form. Students perform through project-based lessons that involve not only understanding technique and style, but also allows them creativity and a time to self-assess their work.

b) The Master schedule provides protected time for discipline-based instruction in each area of the arts. Lesson plans show proof that the specific body of knowledge for each area is covered as outlined in the KCAS.

The rationale explains how the identified evidence supports the school's reported level of program implementation for the demonstrator.

- a) Evidence to support the school's level of program implementation are in the forms of photographs and video of band performances, copies of student self-assessments on file and photographs of students performing dramatics and creating visual art. Completed student artwork is also available. a) While the master schedule provides intentionally scheduled time for all students to experience the four disciplines of art, not all areas provide the opportunity of creating and processing outside the classroom. Band provides concerts honor band, district band and quad state. The Drama Club provides the opportunity for students to perform in a play for the public.
- b) While the master schedule provides time for all students to create and perform in the four art forms, at this time there is not the scheduled opportunity to allow students the time to specialize in a specific art form.

Both Mrs. Ellis and Mr. Franklin have worked diligently to provide our students new opportunities to perform in each of these areas. Mrs. Ellis has been meeting with area Art Teachers monthly to dialogue about taking our Art program to even higher levels. This year the master schedule has provided the opportunities for students to perform drama presentations for elementary students. Art club has been started and students' work is on display on a greater scale. We have expanded Mr. Franklin's Drama class to both 7th and 8th grade this year. Performing Arts Club prepared and performed Trouble at the Talent Show in cooperation with Market House Theatre. Furthermore, the Performing Arts Club embarked on a fine arts enrichment opportunity by traveling to the Tennessee Performing Arts Center to enjoy Phantom of the Opera. The Art club involves all 3 grade levels of students.

There were 12 NMMS students who participated in the West Kentucky Art Invitational in April. All of our students submitted artworks that were juried! IN addition, we had 9 more students submit juried artworks in the Children's Art Show in Benton, Kentucky in March. Next year, students in Mrs. Ellis' class will be using Google classroom as a digital portfolio to create and organize their work.

Career Advising Diagnostic (required grades 6-12)

Introduction

Kentucky is committed to ensuring that every student reaches proficiency and graduates from high school ready for college and/or career. A strategy for comprehensive college and career advising, connecting students to adults that may advise them on college and career options is integral to reaching this goal. This diagnostic can be used by schools to determine the level of implementation of a Comprehensive College and Career Advising Program and can be used in conjunction with Program Review for Practical Living/Career Studies.

A Comprehensive College and Career Advising Program should:

1. Be School-Wide;
2. Implement or Employ the Individual Learning Plan (ILP) as the core component of college and career advising and exploration;
3. Unite students, staff, parents, the community, businesses, and higher education; and
4. Aim to reduce dropout rates, raises graduation rates, and helps pave the way for students to seek post-secondary pursuits after high school (Hodges, 2010; Schanfield, 2010).

To be most effective schools should create a School Counseling Program Advisory Council, as recommended by the American School Counselor Association National Model (3rd ed.) (ASCA, 2012). In order to effectively meet the needs of all students the Advisory Council should be diverse and consist of representatives from school staff, students, parents, and the community. The involvement of many stakeholders ensures program continuity and broadens the scope of content knowledge, skill development, and the formation of habits necessary for students to be successful in adulthood.

Role and Responsibilities of a School Counsel Program Advisory Council

The Advisory Council helps develop the Comprehensive College and Career Advising plan, which includes interventions that target the unique academic, career and personal/social needs of students as identified through needs assessments, grades, ILP reporting, EPAS scores, Student Gallup Poll results, and other school related data. (3rd ed.) (ASCA, 2012).

Evidence-based monitoring is the responsibility of the school counseling program advisory council to ensure that relevant objectives are met and reached. Revisions of the program are intentional, timely and responsive to student and school needs. Data analysis is used to set priorities for services to address academics, behavior, attendance, retention, and acceleration needs. Further, as described by ASCA (<http://www.ascanationalmodel.org/content.asp?contentid=21>), data are used "to measure the results of the program as well as to promote systemic changes within the school system so every student graduates college- and career-ready" (2012). The School Counseling Program Advisory Council should prioritize services that address the school's Comprehensive Improvement Plan concerning college and career readiness, proficiency for all students and eliminating achievement gaps.

In addition to including ALL students, the advising program must be scheduled to occur at regular intervals throughout the school year and be structured to include frequent updating of student ILPs. Imbedding the ILP into the advising system is critical to: supporting students to set and meet goals, helping teachers building relationships with students, and empowering schools to meet the needs of all students.
