Program Review: Writing

Introduction

This report contains Program Review results for Writing. This program review is required as part of Kentucky's new assessment and accountability model. A Program Review is a systematic method of analyzing components of an instructional program, including instructional practices, aligned and enacted curriculum, student works samples, formative and summative assessments, professional development and support services, and administrative support and monitoring. (KRS 158.6453(l)(i))

Diagnostic tools to capture and report the results from these program reviews are contained in the AdvancED's Adaptive System of School Improvement Support Tools (ASSIST). ASSIST allows schools and institutions to gain better understanding of past successes and opportunities, and confidently build a solid, research-based improvement plan for the future.

Arts and Humanities Program Review

List the standards and characteristics that have been identified as strengths in the Arts and Humanities Program. Explain why each of these is a strength in your school's Arts and Humanities Program. What is your plan to sustain these strengths in the area of Arts and Humanities?

Teachers systematically incorporate all three components of arts study: creating, performing, and responding to the arts. Also, teachers provide models of exemplary artistic performances and products to enhance students' understanding of the arts performance/production skills.

Lesson plans and curriculum maps document the sequential presentation of the Common Core and National Arts Standards which affords the students the opportunity to create, perform and respond to all four arts disciplines. Guest artists have been invited to present to our student body as an example of exemplary artistic performances.

Identify the standards and characteristics that have been identified as needing improvement or focus in the Arts and Humanities Program. Explain why each of these needs improvement.

The category that has been selected to improve upon is professional development. We need to seek out more opportunities for job embedded PD, and we need to seek out and develop more PD opportunities that focus on 21st century learning skills.

What are the steps your school plans to take to improve the identified areas of your Arts and Humanities Program?

The district is currently looking into further funding for the Arts and Humanities professional development.
